Workshops

Storyhouse workshops are led by professional artists. Your students will learn, create and be inspired through practical sessions with a child-centered approach.

We offer a range of workshops all year round for schools, designed to support your curriculum through Creative Education.

Covid-19 Secure

All workshops are Covid-19 secure and can be delivered in your school or virtually. We can support you to reach those students who are working remotely, please contact us to discuss further. We will:

- Demonstrate excellent hygiene. Washing hands regularly and thoroughly.
- Minimise contact and maintain distancing throughout the activity for staff and students.
- Use face coverings where required.
- Maintain 'bubbles' and requirements as set out by the school.
- Reduce the number of groups taught and locations worked in, to reduce the number of contacts made.
- Use the NHS test and trace process and respond rapidly.
- Ensure good practice with remote and virtual working.
- Willing to work within your guidance and carry out regular testing.

Storyhouse schools is designed to allow schools and colleges to have as much flexibility as possible and to find the model that works best for you.

There are 3 packages available: Level 1, Level 2 and Level 3. We can create bespoke packages for Academy Trusts. You get:

- Exclusive access to our Creative Learning team.
- A pre-designed menu of workshops.
- Production specific workshops offering you the opportunity to engage in our work.
- Bespoke workshops designed with your teachers.
- Sessions with a focus on careers within the industry.
- Workshops delivered at your location, Storyhouse or virtually.

Partner Schools

Storyhouse works in creative partnership with primary and secondary schools, colleges and universities. Working with you our Creative Learning Practitioners enhance the learning of children and young people.

Our work is influenced by the late educationalist Dorothy Heathcote who saw the relationships between 'expert' adults and children as a collaborative endeavour. We can support your broad and balanced curriculum.

Our options are flexible to suit your creative education needs.

Impact:

- Be part of the schools' network that meets three times a year.
- Work alongside our Creative Learning Practitioners who work in partnership with you.
- Exclusive programme of work specifically designed for Storyhouse Schools that connects to the programme – including access to industry professionals, show workshops, Storyhouse Festivals, creative insight, and more.
- We are experts in blending project-based learning with drama, allowing your students to explore multiple perspectives, to find solutions to complex problems.

- Students develop skills including communication, teamwork, resilience, negotiation, self-esteem, as well as developing their creative arts expertise and topic knowledge.
- Students develop greater awareness and understanding of the arts and creativity as a means of learning.
- Students develop social connection.
- Increase in family and staff participation in arts and culture activities in Chester.

The activities are set at exactly the right level: varied, interesting, well-delivered, very educational. Thanks so much, I think drama can be a really powerful development tool and the Storyhouse team have done a great job. I know the school has had to pay for these so just wanted to say I think they've been an excellent investment.
